BETTY-ROGERS 6B2

The slogans for our School this year are "Education for Living" and "Safety of Human Lives".

Fuller Safety Patrols are working hard to prevent an automobile accident as the children go to and from school. Several patrols stand at dangerous crossings, as Five Points at Mangum and Cleveland streets intersections. They are helped in their work there by two large dummy schoolboy patrolmen. An officer is also with them at times. A picture showing the dummy, Earl Page, Irvin Bobbitt and Patrolman Bennie Brown on duty was in the Sunday Morning Herald, December 5. An interesting writeup was under the picture too.

The personnel of the patrol is:

Captain- Eugene Boyd
First Lieutenant- Winston Smith
Second Lieutenant- Joe White
Patrols- Irvin Bobbitt, Leroy Froctor, Lucas Lee, Billy Freeman, Dewitt Mitchel, Joe Biggs, Earl Page, Ralph Evans, Jimmy Dorman and Milton Fish.

Fuller teachers were given physical examinations by the county physician at school, Friday September 10. All of them passed.

The City Board of Education will let the teachers have five days off free if sick this year.

Mrs. Picket, school nurse and her helpers are examining the children a few at a time. She will keep this up until all are examined.

Fire Prevention Week was kept in this school. Chief Bennett and his firemen visited the school also; but the children were disappointed because they were not asked "to jump into the net" this time.

The first grade has an Irish potato and a sweet potato in glass jars filled with water. They are watching them grow. So far the Irish potato is ahead of the sweet potato. It has long white roots. The sweet potato seems to lie asleep.

Many first grade pupils have been absent from school on account of having chicken-pox. They will have to work harder than ever now to make up for this lost time. So far the following pupils in 1B1 have not missed a single day at school this year: Bobby Hossee, Helen Potts and Leroy Weldon.

4B2 was glad to have Clive Walker and V. K. Hill join their class about the middle of November. They are sorry to lose two boys, Rives Aaron and Clyde Johnson, both of them have moved out of town.

The 2B2 Civics class is making a book called "Who's Who in grade 2B2". On each page is the picture of a child and under it are some questions answered by each child.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

The 3B1 Civics class has a Happiness Club. When some child has done something to make another happy any day, he writes what he has done and puts it into the Happiness Box. On Friday the slips are read. The names are not read then. Later all the names are read and each child tries to have his name read the most times. If a child has his name read five times in a week for four weeks, his name is put on a chart and a blue bird picture is pasted by it. The children like this club and it is stopping tale-bearing.

4B2 has an attendance committee composed of Wanda Lou Gibbs, Mary Lou Smith, Alvitt Loftis and Fletcher Proctor. This committee looks after the absentees who are out more than a day or two.

In the second period ten persons in 4B1 had perfect attendance and seventeen in 4B2.

Tuesday, November 23, 4B2 was given a treat in Miss Whitmore's room. They won the treat because they had the most points in the Fuller School Library Contest. The contest was to see which grade could get the most blue and red stars. To get blue stars it was necessary to take someone to the Public Library and "join" them. 4B2 had five blue stars. Cecil Harris won two and Harrison Schott won three. 4B2 made 106 points in all. The treat was several kinds of candy.

6B2 class has had a fine record this year. The boys have had perfect attendance for six weeks, and the girls for five weeks. Each week that the grade has perfect attendance they are allowed to be dismissed a half hour earlier on Friday. 6B2 has been off eleven Fridays for this reason.

6B2 class also made an average of "A" on Geography test last week.

2B1 and 2B2 were dismissed at 3:45 on Friday November 12, because they had the highest percentage of parents present at the last P. T. A. meeting.

Fuller School held "Open House" November 11, as a part of its celebration of American Education Week. Parents who visited the school on this day were asked to register in the school guest books and invited to attend the Armistice Day program.

The children were glad to contribute to the Community Chest Fund. They liked to watch the figures to up. They were happy when the fund "went over the top" of the barrel. This caused them to learn something about Durham's Civic organizations.

Fuller children have bought T. B. Christmas Seals also to put on their Christmas packages and help cure T. B.

Many children brought canned goods, fruits, potatoes and other food gifts for the Salvation Army's barrels on Wednesday, November 24. This is a Thanksgiving offering and has been an annual custom for many years. The children enjoyed helping the splendid work of the Salvation Army and responded generously.

Many people brought new clothes for the Needlework Guild this year. These garments were displayed at the Washington Duke Hotel and then returned to Fuller School. They are given back to children in this school who need them. The children like these clothes because they are new. 265 articles have been distributed.

Dr. J. T. Underwood, school dentist worked in our building examining teeth. Free treatment was given children under 12 years of age. The Durham County Board of Health pays a full time trained dentist to do this work. Dr. Underwood treated 76 Fuller pupils.

Fuller School pupils were dismissed at 3:20 P.M. on Tuesday December 7, to allow Fuller teachers to attend the general Teachers' Meeting held at Durham High at 3:45 P.M. the same day.

The work of the Art classes has been very attractive this fall. Quite a bit of tempera painting has been done these last six weeks. The designs for the cover of the Christmas FULL-O-NEWS and all other sketches, decorations and lettering used in this issue were done in these classes. Several lovely Christmas cards have been designed and such practical Christmas presents as luncheon sets, book ends, letter racks, decorative pictures and wood block prints are being finished now.

5B2 class has finished a nice booklet about Egypt. The subject matter was taken from reading lessons, and the art work was done under Miss Boyd's direction. Mrs. Dunlap will keep this booklet.

During these very cold days the janitors, John Davis and Thomas Strudwick, have kept the school clean and well heated to the great comfort of all.

Many children still come to school too soon. They are asked to be at school at 11:55. It is better to be too soon, however, than tardy.

The fifth and sixth year music classes have been practicing carols for several days so they can take part in the Christmas carol service to be held Friday night December 17 at 8:00 in the First Baptist church. Those from Fuller school who will take part in the program will be: John Adams, Julia Bachelor, Fred Billings, Irvin Bobbitt, Eugene Boyd, Lillian Brooks, Marjie Brooks, Williard Brown, Betsy Buchanan, William Byrd, Mary Cawthorne, Dorothy Dunn, Thomas Driver, Ralph Evans, Charlotte Edwards, Swanson Ellis, Eloise Fisher, Billy Freeman, Milton Fish, Paul Ferril, Helen Haney, Bobby Harris, Edith Hall, Julia Hamilton, Doris Hardaway, E. C. Harris, Lova Harris, Beryl Hurscy, Max Harris, Mary James, Maxine Johnson, Jean Kursey, Anne Moore, Elsie Napier, Earl Page, Dick Pate, LeRoy Proctor, Doris Pollard, Billie Plcasants, Frances Riddle, Betty Rezner, Betty Rogers, Winston Smith, Mary Frances Sparrwo, Merle Southerland, Bernie Smith, Hazel Smith, Emaline Taylor, Irma Underwood, Jean Umstead, Anna Wall, Gloria Whetstone, Paul Whetstone, Florence Wall, Joe White, Madison Yarborough, Anna Coletta, and Mildred Christmas.

Besides doing their regular work the Civics classes have been in charge of the publication of the Christmas FULL-O-NEWS. The editor-in-chief and her associate editors were elected from the sixth year Civics class. They have also sponsored and presented in the student auditorium some programs on Civic subjects. Robert Edwards, student body president, reported the three best of these as those given about Safety First, Armistice and Thanksgiving. These classes are now busy arranging a Christmas Program to be given in the Auditorium December 22. Music for all these programs is furnished by the music classes and makes the programs much better.

The P. T. A. has placed a lovely Christmas tree in each classroom. Everyone is enjoying them very much.

The following are room reporters for FULL-O-NEWS this year:

Miss Maggie Holloway, Principal Emeritus, is teaching backward pupils in Arithmetic, and looking forward to the time when she can take up her duties in the cafeteria of New Fuller School

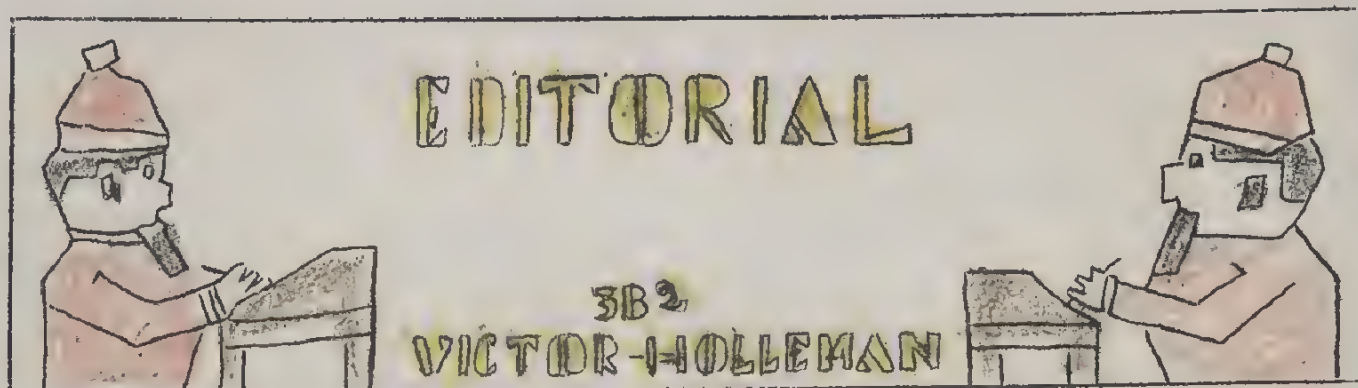

The Buchanan children have put a Christmas tree fitted in a musical base in the auditorium again this year. The music box plays Silent Night and other Christmas music. As the music box plays the tree revolves so all sides can be seen. The Buchanans have sent a tree in this same base to Fuller School each Christmas for many years. They have invited North Durham School to use it also this time. The school is pleased and grateful for this sweet attention.

Christmas Holidays begin December 23, 1937 and end January 2, 1938.

'And so, as Tiny Tim observed, "God bless us everyone."

Wishing you a MERRY CHRISTMAS and

A HAPPY NEW YEAR

IN APPRECIATION

Another year finds us still at North Durham School. We appreciate very much the continued kindness and courtesy of Mrs. Dunn, the North Durham teachers and pupils.

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS

During the Christmas holidays many children shoot firecrackers. This is a dangerous and wasteful form of amusement, and not expressive of the true Christmas Spirit. We would like for the pupils of Fuller School to keep Christmas in the right way. Let us all try to be careful of property and lives, and celebrate Christmas with "Peace on earth, good will toward men" in our hearts.

A CHRISTMAS HINT

Many families are poverty stricken this Christmas, and many little girls and boys will not be as fortunate as we are. So, when the Boy Scouts come to your door asking for toys, do not let them go away empty handed. An old toy will make some child happy.

Old stories say elves, brownies and fairies crept into homes to get away from cold and storms at Christmas. Boughs of pine and fir were placed about for the wee folks to hide in.

MY MANGER

I've built a little manger
Within my heart tonight,
To welcome in the Stranger,
The Lord of Love and Right.

I've built a manger lowly
Where He may come and rest,
And here the Infant Holy
Shall be my welcome guest.

For many a door has turned Him
Into the evening gloom;
And many a voice has spurned
Him,
Saying, No room, No Room!

I've made a little manger
Because I have no more,
Come in Thou blessed Stranger,
Possess it evermore!

LET'S TRY!

We are glad to be going to Chapel Exercises again. We enjoy singing together! We like Mr. Cookes little talks. They make us think and help us to do better. The last talk he made was about-

"A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches,
And loving favor than silver and gold."

The lesson from this is good reputations and friendliness are more good to us than money. All of us can't have money, but all can be true and friendly--
Let's try!

IT'S COMING!

Christmas Day will soon be here,
That's the time of much good cheer.

It makes the children very gay
To find their toys on Christmas day.

Then all too soon comes the time
When Santa goes away
Next Christmas he'll come again
And make more children gay.

-Iris Inscore 6B1

A JOKE ON ME

The best Christmas I ever had, Mother and my brother, and my sister all went to the country and got a Christmas tree. She brought it back and put it up. I tried to help her, but she told me Santa would not come if I were there. Next morning I got up and went in where the Christmas tree was. My sister had a doll as big as I was. Her doll was in a doll bed. My doll was a rubber one, but I did not know it. I picked her up and hugged her so that she mashed because she was rubber. I thought I had broken her. Mother laughed at me and told me she was rubber. I have had her four years.

A LITTLE RHYME

I have a little brother,
His name is Billy Hugh,
We all love him dearly,
And hope you love him too.

THE HOLIDAY I LIKE MOST

What holiday do you like best? I like Christmas because you get presents from good old Santa Claus, you don't have to go to school for about two weeks, on Christmas day you go to church, and you celebrate the birthday of Christ.

William Agapion - 6B1

ADVICE

Christmas comes but once a year!
Joyous cheer! Joyous cheer!
Let's be merry while its' here,
With joyous joyous cheer!

Betty Rezner - 6B2

WHAT I'M GOING TO DO CHRISTMAS

I am going to stay at home some and visit my people some. I am not going to shoot fireworks this year. Last year I tore my finger all to pieces with a torpedo. I'm also going to church every time they have a service. Here I will worship the Savior and be happy.

Edgar Draughan - 6B1

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

Christmas is a time to be happy and to try to make someone else happy. We should not be thinking of what we shall get for Christmas but try and remember what the three wise men did, they brought gifts to Jesus. Singing carols may cheer some poor person who doesn't expect a cheery Christmas.

A MOTHER TALKING TO HER BABY BOY

Christmas comes, but once a year
 Aren't you glad my little dear?
 And if you'll be good as good can be
 Why dear, old Santa will come to see
 The little boy that sits on my knee.

PRESIDENT VISITS ROANOKE ISLAND

Last summer Roanoke Island celebrated the 300th anniversary of the birth of the first white child in America, Virginia Dare.

Virginia Dare's birthday was on August 18th. The president of the United States came on that day to celebrate this anniversary.

Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, the president was a guest at our cottage on the beach.

There were about fifty men from Washington who came with him. Mr. President, as they told us to call him, is a large, fine looking man with a great deal of personality. He smiled, shook hands and talked to everyone who came to the house and waved to those who couldn't come near.

All these men ate supper with us and after supper they got in their cars and went to see the pageant, "The Lost Colony"
 The President's car was a large car with no top. There were a lot of secret service men riding with him.

The governor of North Carolina stayed with him while he was in North Carolina, as he was a guest of the state.

I'm glad the sky is painted blue,
 And the earth is painted green,
 With such a lot of nice fresh air,

All sandwiched in between.

--Ann Buchanan--

A VISITOR

One day Mr. Cooke let the first grades keep his little puppy dog in our room all day.
 It was just a little baby dog then. We took turns at playing Red Cross nurse and looking after him. We called him "Happy", because he didn't cry, except once, all day. He cried when he was hungry. As soon as he drank some milk, he was happy again.
 The puppy belongs to Mr. Cooke's little girl, Carol.

Mary Boddie - 1B2

SANTA CLAUS

He's a little old man with a beard so white,
 And he has a smile so jolly and bright.
 He roams over the world on Christmas night---
 Having worked all the year to spread Christmas cheer--
 And make folks happy Christmas and New Year.

OUR INDIAN STUDY

(By 2B1 Class Members)

1. 2B1 studied about Indians in Civics.
 (Junior Wall)
2. They learned stories and poems about Indians
 (James Enoch)
3. They looked at pictures about
 Indians.
 (James Cauthorne)
4. Some Indians lived in snow houses, some in mud houses.
 (Henry Lewis)
5. Some Indians lived in Wigwams.
 (Charlotte Neuwirth)
6. Others lived in houses made of bark or grasses
 (Herbert Reams)
7. 2B1 children made canoes.
 (J. P. Ingold)

BLOWING BUBBLES

When I go home from school I sometimes blow soap bubbles. The colors that come in them are the colors of the rainbow. The bubbles that I try to blow are about the size of an apple or larger. They sometimes burst without leaving the pipe. When the bubbles get large enough they fall off the pipe and float through the air until they burst. I think blowing soap bubbles is a very nice thing to play and a pipe would be a nice Christmas present for a friend.

Louise Daniels-4B2

PLAYING FOOTBALL

Every afternoon before supper my little brothers and the other children in our neighborhood play football. We play touch. We have three on each side. To play we pass off to them and they come for our goal. If we touch them it's a down. The team that gets the highest score wins. If it is not too cold we'll have good times during Christmas holidays playing football.

Clyde Christmas-4B2

WHY I GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL

I go to learn about the Lord.
I go to learn right from wrong.
I go because it interests me.
I go to be a good citizen.
I go because it is a good place to go on Sunday.
I think it is right to work for the Lord.
I like to read the Sunday school books.

Fred Billings - 5B1

It is good to be children sometimes, and never better than at Christmas when its Mighty Founder was a child himself.

Dickens.

MY BEST CHRISTMAS

The best Christmas I ever had was when I got so much toys and fruit. I shared my fruit with my little neighbor friends. They did not get much that Christmas because their work was scarce. I carried my wagon with my little toys and went up to their house. I did not even take time to look in my stocking that belonged to my grandmother, but went on. They had the best time and Sallie and I did too. That evening I rode in my wagon behind the house and prayed to God for what He had sent me.

NEW YORK

Although we studied New York the first of the year I am still enjoying the memory of my imaginary trip there. We found out a great many things we did not know. We had no idea there were so many people living in New York and such high buildings and that there were so many kinds of work to be done in this city. At the piers there are many ships from other lands that have come to trade with New York. Miss Lily made it so real to us that we could almost see the ships with the different flags on them. We are now studying the Western States and as a part of our review we are making state puzzles. It is great fun to solve these puzzles by answering the questions asked. The initial in the answer helps to spell the state. Can you solve this one?

1. Something needed to make plants grow in the west.
2. A fruit grown in Washington.
3. Kind of fish caught in Columbia river.
4. The capital of Montana.
5. A valley in southern California.
6. The state having the fewest people.
7. Something in the Yellowstone Pa

A TRIP TO FLORIDA

Our trip to Florida has been very interesting and instructive. We passed through the states of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and stopped at the end of the first day at Lee, Fla., which is in Madison County where we spent the night.

The next day we rode through Suwanee County, passed over the famous Suwanee River, and parked at Cross City, Fla. which is in Dixie County.

Adjoining Cross City is a fine town called Shamrock, Fla. We spent three hours at Shamrock, Florida and visited one of the largest lumber mills in the South, called the Putnam Lumber Co.

We left the mill and went through a box and crate factory, also a turpentine still.

WILLIAMSBURG

When we drove into Williamsburg several weeks ago, I at once felt that I was in a place different from anywhere I had ever been.

I knew that Williamsburg was a restored town; but I felt that it was like the stories I had read about people, town and buildings, before Revolutionary time, long long, ago.

Ten years ago Mr. J.D. Rockefeller Jr. decided to rebuild this old colonial city and capital as it was in 1698 when it was the capital of Virginia colony.

These buildings were called the finest in the colonies and are rebuilt on the same ground. The ones we visited were; The Old Court House, the Capitol, the Public Gaol (jail), the Raleigh Tavern, and the Governor's Palace. They were so pretty and so interesting.

The capitol, beautiful to look at is built in the form of an H. The court room, governors room, council and assembly room are all furnished as they were then. The ladies who took you through wore pretty colonial dresses.

The public jail was interesting. We saw the old cells and where they punished people in the court yard in public. The old jail keeper wore a funny suit.

The Raleigh tavern was where all the visitors stayed when they came to town. Many great people stayed there; George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Patrick Henry.

The Governor's Palace is the prettiest building I have ever seen. It is furnished just like when the governor lived there, living rooms, parlor, dinning room, bed rooms, kitchen are all the same. The old carriages and drivers are seen on the street everyday riding the ladies home who take you through the buildings. They are all dressed in beautiful costumes. Before I close, I want to tell you a little about Bruton Parish Church. Very old, build in 1644. There is a gallery in the back. The William and Mary College student sat here after they were all in, the door was locked and they had to sit until church was over. George Washington, Patrick Henry, Thomas Jefferson, Martha Custis Washington, and many others had pews marked with bronze plates.

I hope sometime you all can go to Williamsburg.

Betsy Buchanan-6B2

RALPH-EVANS

The many little friends of Mary Thomas will be glad to know that she is getting well rapidly following a mastoid operation at McPherson's Hospital.

"You are invited to a P.T.A. Tea For Fuller School patrons and friends you see,
A silver offering of a quarter or more
Will let you in our festive door.
Please sign this slip and return to us.
So cakes will be plenty without a fuss."

This attractive invitation was sent out by Mrs. Waldo Boone, chairman of the finance committee of Fuller School P.T.A. All parents and teachers who were able to attend reported an enjoyable afternoon.

On Armistice day, November 11, the children of the sixth grade presented a "Peace Time" program. The parents were invited, and many of them attended.

The President, on the 18th of August last summer, visited the Bushanans' at their summer home while attending the pageant "The Lost Colony".

Gloria and Paul Whetston took a trip to Florida on Oct. 20. We are glad to have them with us again.

On November 5,6,7, the Buchanans took a trip to Nags Head, N. C., Old Point, Virginia, returning by Williamsburg, Va.

We regretted very much to hear of the death of Mary James' father. She is one of the 6th grades pupils.

Fuller School gives Miss Yvonne Boyd, their new Art teacher, a hearty welcome. Her home is in Aden, N. C. She is taking the place of Mrs. L. E. Graham, who is now the Art teacher at Central Junior High School.

Mr. W. F. Warren, Mr. C. E. Cooke, and Business Manager, Mr. E. N. Jones went to Hickory to see about desks for the new Fuller School last week-end.

Both teachers and pupils are looking forward to the time when we can go back to Fuller School. It is hoped the new school will be ready by February 1938.

Friday, December 10, Mrs. Whetstone gave the 6th grade a treat of a notebook and a ruler. Mrs. Whetstone is the 6th grade's grade mother. Candy was also distributed to the class at this time.

On Open House Day the first grades had several mothers to visit them.

Douglas Christmas' mother, Max Keck's mother, Elmer Wall's mother and Ann Westmoreland's mother came to see them. So many children were sick at this time, that other mothers could not leave home.

The school extends its sympathy to Miss Lilly Holloway in the loss of her mother who passed away early this fall.

All are glad that Miss Madeline Knight has recovered from her fall. She spent several weeks in Watts Hospital. During her absence Mrs. C. E. Cooke taught the sixth grade.

Teachers, pupils and parents extends deepest sympathy to Mrs. W. E. Thomas, Fuller P. T. A. President, in the death of her mother.

On the day before Thanksgiving Day the first grade had a special treat by their grade representative, Mrs. W. E. Thomas. Each child in the first grade was given a miniature airplane made of a stick of chewing gum for the wings, a stick of candy for the body and tail, and two candy circles for wheels. There was a "Buzzing good time" for a few minutes, after which the airplanes began to disappear.

There is born to you this day in the city of David, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.

---Luke 2:11---

DECEMBER

December is here, the end of the year,
The month that I like best;
For Christmas time, with merry chime,
Is better than all the rest.

The jingle of bells a sweet story tells,
How a Babe in a manger lay;
How a shining star guided afar
The men who were searching the way.

The story so sweet we always repeat,
As Christmas time draws nigh;
That the little ones dear the story may hear,
And learn of Jesus on high.

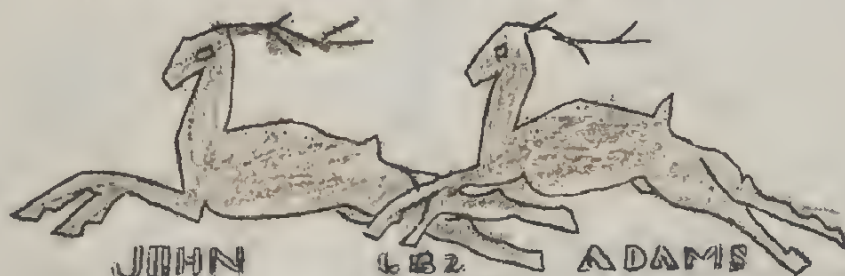

And jingle of bells another one tells,
A story they like to hear,
Of a queer old chap with a queer old cap,
Who comes but once a year.

So bells may chime for Christmas time,
The merriest of the year;
So well I like the Christmas bright,
I would keep it always here.
--Betty Reznor--

Miss S.: Roger, sit down in front.
Roger: Sorry, Miss S--, but I'm not made that way.

(Bill S. to Francis R) 'Scuse me, Francis. I hate to bother you, but I really think you are sitting on a little snake that I've hidden there.

ATHLETICS

The fourth, fifth and sixth grades have been playing soccer this fall. We play practice games with other grades. The 6B2 grade played 4B2 and defeated them by a score of 3-0. The second game that 6B2 played was with 5B1. 5B1 went down in defeat by a score of 3-2. Each pupil has a position to play.

In our Physical Education class we are taught the right road to health. We take exercise and develop our muscles so we can sit, stand, and walk correctly. We also learn good sportsmanship, fair play, leadership and fellowship in our classes.

We have health twice a week and a play-period three times a week. We have composition notebooks in which we keep our Health notes.

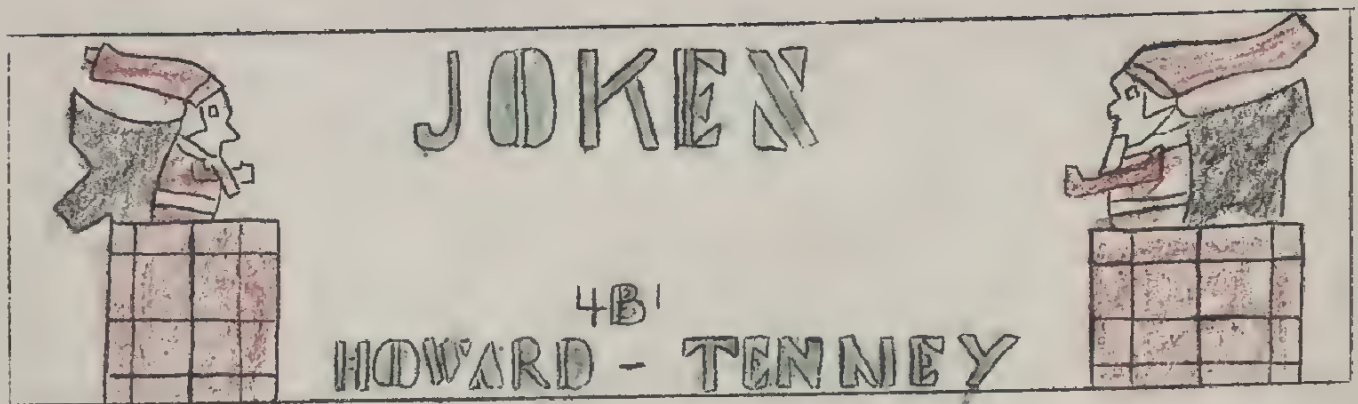

Fuller School had a track meet with North Durham in the latter part of October. The Fuller School pupils defeated North Durham in every contest. There were three legged races, forty yard dashes, broad jumping, tin plate throwing and base ball throwing for the boys. The girls had forty yard dashes and soccer ball throwing, tin plate throwing and broad jumping.

During the months of October and November the 4th, 5th, and 6th grade girls have been playing volley-ball under Miss Horneys instructions. 6B2 has won four games and lost one. 6B1 has won two games and lost two. 5B2 has won four games and lost one. 5B1 has won three games and lost three. 4B2 has won no games and lost five. 4B1 has won one game and lost two. 4B2 and 4B1 did not play. It was the fourth grades first year.

The second and third grades have been working hard to remember to have clean hands and nails when they come to school. If the nails have been cleaned every day for a week when the monitor checked, they were given a gold star. If they are clean only three days, they are given a silver star.

People in Poland believe Jacob's ladder is brought back to earth on Christmas Eve; and angels come down it bringing peace and good will again.

Merry Christmas to Everybody!
Happy New Year to All the World!

Miss M.: What do you put at the end of "Tom is sick"?

John: A period.

Miss M: That's right. Now use it as a question.

John: Is Tom sick?

Miss M: Correct. Now turn it into an exclamation.

John: Sick him, Tom!

Miss Lilly: "Johnny, what are the seasons?"

Johnny: You mean in the United States?"

Miss Lilly: "Yes, of course."

Johnny: "Baseball and football."

Once there were three baby kittens and their names were Eni, Meany, Mini. What was the mother cats name? What?

Madison: Hey, there's an insect in my soup!

Cook: That's nothing, its probably one of those vitamin "bees".

B.J.: Miss Lily, mushrooms always grow in damp places, don't they?

Miss Lilly: Why, yes of course!

B.J.: Is that why they look like umbrellas?

Miss B.: (On art class) "Illustrate some idea you got from the Indian Bazaar."

Thomas D.: Miss B--, what is that? Isn't it something that floats down the river?

Mr. C.: This is the fifth time you've had to stay in this week. Have you anything to say for yourself?

Sam: Yes, Sir, I'm glad it's Friday!

Ralph: What hand do you eat your ice cream with?

John: Why, my right!

Ralph: That's funny! I eat mine with my spoon.

Miss M: (Trying to teach her class about money) "What is this? she asked slapping a half-dollar on her desk?"

B.T.: "Tails."

Jimmie: What is the difference in Popeye and a balloon?

Betsy: Popeye says, "Blow me down" and the balloon says, "Blow me up."
